America Strong: U.S. Navy Blue Angels Dallas/Fort Worth Flyover Championing National Unity Behind Frontline Responders

FORT WORTH, TEXAS (May 4, 2020) – In a show of national solidarity, the U.S. Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron, the Blue Angels, will flyover Dallas/Fort Worth on Wednesday, May 6, starting near McKinney at 11 a.m. Central Time. The flyover will last about 35 minutes. Date, time and flight path are subject to change. Link to Map

This is part of multiple flyovers across the nation called America Strong — a collaborative salute to honor healthcare workers, first responders and other essential frontline workers as they combat COVID-19.

The U.S. Navy Blue Angels soared though the North Texas skies last October at the Bell Fort Worth Alliance Air Show. The renowned U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds will fly at the 30th Anniversary of the Bell Fort Worth Alliance Air Show Oct. 17-18, 2020, at Fort Worth Alliance Airport. Tickets will be available for purchase at www.AllianceAirShow.com in early summer.

ABOUT THE BELL FORT WORTH ALLIANCE AIR SHOW

The Bell Fort Worth Alliance Air Show is one of the largest, longest-running and most successful civilian air shows in the nation. An all-encompassing community event that attracts more than 120,000 attendees annually, the air show showcases our nation's armed forces; Dallas-Fort Worth's important aerospace and aviation industries; education and workforce development programs across the region; and the very best in family entertainment. Alliance Air Productions, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization and producer of the air show, is a subsidiary of Hillwood, the developer of the 26,000-acre AllianceTexas project that is home to Fort Worth Alliance Airport. Since 2006, more than $760,000 has been distributed to more than 70 nonprofit organizations, including over $250,000 to beneficiaries such as USO of Dallas/Fort Worth, Hope for the Brave, Carry the Load, and MWR Department events at Fort Worth Naval Air Station Joint Reserve Base.
